Electronic

Issue no. (03/2026)

Newsletter

President Office

AOU Egypt celebrates the graduation of its students.

In an atmosphere filled with pride and joy, the Arab Open University in Egypt organized a graduation ceremony for a new cohort of its students at the Al-Manara International Conference Center, with high-level attendance and distinguished participation from the university's leadership at both the Arab and Egyptian levels. The ceremony was attended by His Royal Highness Prince Abdulaziz bin Talal Al Saud, Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Arab Open University; Prof. Mohammed Al-Zakari, President of the Arab Open University in the Arab region; Prof. Mofeed Shehab, Member of the Board of Trustees; and Prof. Mohamed Samir Hamza, President of the Arab Open University in Egypt, along with Prof. Nermin Khodr, Central Dean of the Colleges of Media, in addition to a number of academic and administrative leaders and faculty members. During the ceremony, His Royal Highness Prince Abdulaziz bin Talal expressed his pride in the university's graduates, emphasizing that true investment lies in human capital and that graduates represent hope in building a more conscious future capable of facing challenges.

Student Zekra Participates in the AI Challenge (AIGameDay 2025) – Bahrain

Student Zekra participated in the AI Challenge (AIGameDay 2025), organized by the Information and eGovernment Authority in cooperation with the Royal Police Academy, in partnership with the United Nations Development Programme (UNDP) and Amazon Web Services (AWS), and supported by STC Bahrain.

Master's Thesis Defense at the College of Law on Environmental Damage Resulting from Wars – Oman

A master's thesis entitled "International Responsibility for Environmental Damage Resulting from Wars", submitted by student Fatima bint Salem bin Hamad Al-Hajriya, was successfully defended as part of the requirements for obtaining a Master's degree in Public Law at the Arab Open University – Sultanate of Oman. The defense was attended by the examination committee chaired by Dr. Hamad bin Saeed Al-Kalbani, with Dr. Wael Mahmoud Fakhry as thesis supervisor and Dr. Mostafa Lotfy Shaker as external examiner and addressed a contemporary legal issue of international significance.

AOU Conducts a Student Guidance Skills Workshop in Cooperation with the Ministry of Labour – Oman

The Arab Open University in Oman conducted a Student Guidance Skills workshop in cooperation with the Ministry of Labour, delivered by Dr. Mousa bin Sulaiman Al-Shaeili and attended by specialists from vocational colleges.

AOU Honors Winners of the 13th Competitive Programming Contest – Kuwait

The university honored the winners of the 13th Competitive Programming Contest in Kuwait, recognizing their excellence and advanced skills in programming. This initiative reflects the university's commitment to promoting innovation and academic excellence among students. It also highlights its ongoing efforts to nurture technical talents and enhance students' practical and scientific competencies.

AOU Implements the SMART Project Certification Program – Bahrain

The Training, Continuing Education, and Community Service Department at the Arab Open University – Bahrain implemented a specialized training program titled SMART Project Certification, delivered by Eng. Dr. Yousif Amin Al-Amin. The program targeted university students, academic and administrative staff, and professionals interested in project management, aiming to equip participants with practical knowledge and skills in smart project management, with a focus on applying SMART principles in planning, implementation, and monitoring.

Graduation Project Presentations for GMDT Students – Lebanon

Final-year GMDT students in Lebanon presented innovative graduation projects that highlighted their technical skills and creative vision, in an event that encouraged knowledge exchange and marked an important transition toward professional life.