

Issue no. (06/2026)

Electronic Newsletter

AOU Director in Kuwait discusses ways of cooperation with the Capital Governor – Kuwait

The University Director in Kuwait met with the Capital Governor, Sheikh Abdullah Salem Al-Ali Al-Sabah, to discuss strengthening cooperation between the governorate and educational institutions. During the meeting, Dr. Salah Al-Hammadi expressed appreciation for the governor's support of the education sector, in the presence of Dr. Mohammed Al-Loughani and Mr. Ghazi Al-Anzi.

Closing of the IEEE International Conference on Computer Science and Its Applications at the Arab Open University – Bahrain

The Arab Open University in Bahrain concluded the three-day ICCA 2025 conference, bringing together researchers from over 47 countries in a major regional event in computer science and modern technologies. The conference highlighted international academic collaboration and knowledge exchange in emerging technological fields.

President of AOU represents the university at the global rankings meeting in Riyadh – Bahrain

The Arab Open University, represented by Dr. Najma Taqi, the University President, participated in the technical consultative meeting on global rankings of Gulf higher education institutions, held at the Secretariat General of the Gulf Cooperation Council in Riyadh.

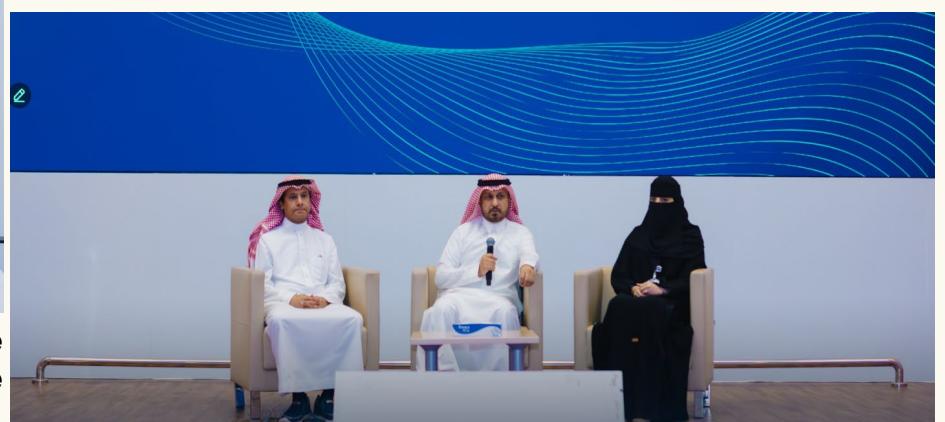

The Ministry of Education honors Arab Open University leaders for their pioneering efforts in the E-Waste Initiative – Kuwait

The Ministry of Education honored Dr. Salah Al-Hammadi for his support in the success of the E-Waste initiative during a closing ceremony attended by ministry officials, specialists, and participating students. The recognition highlighted the university's contribution to environmental awareness and sustainability efforts.

Signing of an incubation agreement between the Innovation Center at the Arab Open University and the startup Aveline – Oman

The Arab Open University's Innovation Center signed an incubation agreement with the startup Aveline to support entrepreneurship by providing technical, advisory, and mentoring assistance, helping develop its business model into a scalable and sustainable project. This initiative aligns with the university's commitment to strengthening the innovation and startup ecosystem.

Regular meeting strengthens communication and innovation among university staff – Saudi Arabia

The Arab Open University held its second regular staff meeting to enhance communication, exchange expertise, and review key institutional initiatives and achievements, with the participation of academic and administrative leaders.

AOU Director Discusses Media and Development Partnerships with ICESCO – Kuwait

AOU Director, Dr. Salah Al-Hammadi, met with Dr. Barakat Al-Waqian from the Islamic World Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (ICESCO) to explore joint cooperation and strengthen strategic media and development partnerships. The meeting focused on upcoming media initiatives aimed at supporting cultural and scientific efforts and highlighting Kuwait's development achievements regionally and internationally.

AOU Hosts Global Leadership Program – Bahrain

The university organized an international leadership training program titled "Leadership Mosaics: Illustrated Leadership – Leadership Evaluation, Development & Growth," delivered by Professor Michael O'Malley from Yale School of Medicine and CEO of Leadership Mosaics, through its Training and Community Service Department.

"Your University, Your Second Home" – An Inspiring Start to a Promising Future – Kuwait

In an atmosphere filled with enthusiasm and ambition, the university launched its inspiring slogan, "Your University, Your Second Home," during the orientation meeting for new students. The event emphasized that university life marks not just a new academic phase, but the beginning of shaping one's future. The session was attended by the University Director, his assistants, college deans, and heads of administrative departments.

AOU Participates in Education Links Winter Fair – Bahrain

AOU took part in the Education Links Winter Fair as part of its ongoing efforts to engage with students and parents and promote its academic programs. Held from 30 January to 2 February 2025, the event included visits to several private schools, participation in the annual universities' exhibition at Sahla North Youth Empowerment Center, and involvement in the accompanying exhibition activities.

AOU Promotes Health and Safety Culture Through Awareness Workshop – Oman

AOU organized an awareness workshop on health, security, and safety procedures, delivered by Mr. Zuhair Al-Hinai, Head of the Health, Safety, and Environment Department at Sultan Qaboos University. The workshop aimed to raise awareness of occupational health and safety concepts, strengthen adherence to preventive measures, and foster a safe educational and working environment for all university members.

Extension of Prince Talal bin Abdulaziz Al Saud's Humanitarian Vision Reflected in the "Giving Renewed" Initiative – Bahrain

Inspired by the humanitarian legacy of Prince Talal bin Abdulaziz Al Saud in promoting charity and social responsibility, the Student Council at the AOU, under the supervision of the Student and Alumni Affairs Department, organized a Ramadan initiative titled "Giving Renewed" to support underprivileged families during the holy month of Ramadan.

AOU trained Ministry of Social Affairs staff on smart secretarial skills and digital office management – Kuwait Specialized training program to enhance researchers' efficiency at the university – Oman

The university's Training Center delivered a program on smart secretarial skills and digital office management for Arab Open University employees to enhance their professional efficiency. The training focused on developing modern administrative skills using digital technologies and improving office management in a smart work environment.

As part of its efforts to promote scientific research, the Arab Open University is organizing the "Empowering the Academic Researcher" workshop to build advanced research capacities, delivered by Dr. Ibrahim Al-Wuhaibi, every Monday over five weeks, from November 2 until March 2, 2026.

AOU organizes the closing ceremony of the annual competitions and honors the winners – Saudi Arabia

Affirming its commitment to supporting excellence and creativity and enhancing an innovation-friendly academic environment, the Arab Open University organized the closing ceremony of this year's competitions, attended by academic leaders, faculty members, administrative staff, and participating students, in a celebratory atmosphere reflecting positive competition and a high level of creativity in the submissions.

Training program on auditing rules and accounting audit skills in cooperation with the Ministry of Finance – Kuwait

The Arab Open University Training Center delivered an auditing and accounting audit skills program for government employees in cooperation with the Ministry of Finance. The training provided essential knowledge in auditing, internal control, and analytical financial review techniques to detect irregularities.

AOU participates in Bahrain Sports Day – Bahrain

The Arab Open University participated in Bahrain Sports Day to promote physical activity and public health awareness. The university organized interactive sports activities for employees, supporting a healthy lifestyle and workplace well-being.

Student participation from the university in the InnovateX event – Oman

Students from the Innovation Center visited the InnovateX event at Sohar University to explore innovative projects and exchange experiences with participants. The visit aimed to raise awareness of innovation ecosystems and encourage active student engagement in innovation activities.