

Issue no. (08/2026)

Electronic Newsletter

AOU celebrates its graduates in the Riyadh

Under the generous patronage of His Royal Highness Prince Faisal bin Bandar bin Abdulaziz Al Saud, Governor of the Riyadh Region, and in the presence of His Royal Highness Prince Abdulaziz bin Talal bin Abdulaziz Al Saud, Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Arab Open University, along with Her Royal Highness Princess Al-Anoud bint Turki bin Talal Al Saud and a number of Their Highnesses, Excellencies, and university leaders, the Arab Open University celebrated the graduation of the Class of 2026 from its Riyadh and Hail branches at a formal ceremony held in Riyadh, reflecting the vital role of education in empowering individuals and supporting national development in line with Saudi Vision 2030 and the goals of a sustainable knowledge economy; the ceremony opened with the Royal Anthem and a recitation from the Holy Quran, followed by a visual presentation titled "The Destination," which highlighted the graduates' academic journey and key milestones of challenge and achievement.

AOU Strengthens Its Graduate Programs with New International Accreditations and Unconditional Renewal of the MBA – Lebanon

AOU in Lebanon has introduced new Master's programs in Artificial Intelligence, Data Science, and Healthcare Management in partnership with The Open University (UK), offering dual degrees upon official approval. It has also renewed its MBA program for the fourth time without conditions, highlighting the quality of its academic offerings.

AOU Continues AOUers Talk Series with New Session – Jordan

The University held a new session as part of the AOUers Talk series to share inspiring experiences. The session featured Amjad Al-Suyouf, who spoke on the relationship between education and work. It was attended by the University Director and members of the academic and administrative staff. The initiative aims to strengthen organizational culture and promote knowledge exchange.

AOU Participates in Media Qualification Course for Civil Entities – Kuwait

AOU participated in Media Qualification Course for Civil Entities (No. 1), organized by the Kuwait National Guard, represented by the Directorate of Moral Guidance. The course lasted for one week and included participants from various civil institutions. The University's participation reflects its commitment to enhancing the media and institutional communication capabilities of its staff.

AOU Participates in E-Learning Conference – Jordan

The University participated in the 11th E-Learning Conference in Jordan. The conference focused on digital education developments. It addressed the role of teachers in adapting to technology. The participation reflects the University's academic engagement.

AOU Continues Presence at Career Fair at Najmat Al Fareed Schools – Jordan

The University participated in the annual career fair at Najmat Al Fareed Schools. The event introduced students to academic programs and future career paths. It aimed to raise awareness of professional opportunities and fields of study. The participation supports informed academic and career decision-making.

Towards a Smart Work Environment: Launch of AI Training Program at the Arab Open University – Oman

The Arab Open University Training Academy organized a training program titled "Using Artificial Intelligence in the Workplace," delivered by Dr. Mohammed Al-Husseini. The program explored ways to leverage modern technologies to enhance institutional performance and keep pace with digital transformation.