

Issue no. (15/2024)

Electronic Newsletter

Thursday 18 April 2024 09 Shawwal 1445 AH

Eid
Mubarak

President
Office

AOU Book Club organizes discussion session – Lebanon

Following the Lebanese national anthem, the Head of Student Affairs, Ms. Rana Haidar, welcomed the author of the book "The Deceptive Gender" Dr. Talal Atarssi. Then, the media personality Susan Khalil introduced Dr. Talal, who reviewed the highlights of his book, presenting everything that surrounds the topic of gender from different angles. Finally, the discussion was opened with the audience, who raised several questions that were answered by Dr. Atarssi. The meeting concluded with the presentation of a commemorative shield from the University Director Dr. Yara Abdullah to the author.

AOU's "Yomen Team" wins an award of Excellence in Community Service – Oman

As part of the Giving Month competition organized by the Zakat Committee in the Wilayat of Seeb during the holy month of Ramadan, the university participated with a volunteer team "Yomen" formed by the Social Club Group. The team carried out several distinguished activities and events during this blessed month, which resulted in winning the Excellence in Community Service Award. It is worth noting that the university pays special attention to community service

AOU participates in the third edition of "DERASTI" Expo – Kuwait

The university participated in the third "DERASTI" Expo under the patronage of the Minister of Education, Higher Education and Scientific Research, Prof. Adel Al-Adwani. The participation aims to enhance the university's effective contribution to supporting state institutions with the best educational outputs and spread student awareness among high school students to contribute to determining their choices and specializations that they desire, and for the university to be one of these options available to them and guide them on how to register.

Memorandum of Understanding signed between the AOU and Sohar University – Oman

The Arab Open University and Sohar University signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) in the fields of academic affairs, scientific research, community service, and other areas. The MoU was signed on behalf of the Arab Open University by Prof. Mohammed bin Hamadan Al-Badi, President of the University, and on behalf of Sohar University by Dr. Hamdan bin Suleiman Al-Fzari, President of Sohar University.

This MoU is in line with the two universities' efforts to activate cooperation prospects in aspects that serve the universities and work to enhance the frameworks of partnership between higher education institutions in the Sultanate of Oman.

AOU organizes Values-based guidance week – Oman

In implementation of the recommendations of the symposium "The Family and Building Values: Opportunities and Challenges," the Student Guidance Unit at the Arab Open University organized a values guidance week called "Values" that began on Monday, April 1, and ended on Wednesday, April 3, 2024. The week included several values such as charity, friendship, and stress management. During this week, some publications were distributed carrying a message for each value, and it also included several activities, the most prominent of which was a cleaning campaign, and an expressive corner in the reception of students who expressed their opinion on friendship and the best ways to get rid of stress.