Prince Abdulaziz bin Talal Announces the Opening of the Tenth Campus of the Arab Open University in the Maghreb – Headquarters

His Royal Highness Prince Abdulaziz bin Talal bin Abdulaziz Al Saud, Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Arab Open University, announced the opening of the university in the Kingdom of Morocco, making it the tenth campus within its educational network across the Arab world. The announcement was made during the 45th meeting of the Board of Trustees, held virtually with the participation of board members. His Highness expressed his sincere appreciation to His Majesty King Mohammed VI and the Moroccan government for their support in establishing the university, from the initial concept to the completion of campus preparations. The campus is set to welcome its first cohort of students in the 2026–2027 academic year, with strong support from government bodies and private sector institutions, particularly the Ministry of Higher Education and Scientific Research.
