

Issue no. (17/2024)

Electronic Newsletter

Thursday 02nd May 2024 23rd Shawwal 1445 AH

President Office

Exploring the Features of McGraw-Hill Connect – Oman

The Learning Resources Center at the university organized training workshops on the use and exploration of the McGraw-Hill Connect platform. The workshops aimed to enhance the skills of students and familiarize them with all the capabilities offered by this effective tool in facilitating and improving the learning and teaching processes. The training workshops were held over two days, with the first day dedicated to students in the morning and evening sessions, and the second day for academics from the College of Business Administration and the College of Computer Studies.

University Hosts Delegation from Open University Malaysia (OUM) – Kuwait

The university hosted a delegation from the Open University Malaysia (OUM), represented by Professor Dr. Santhi Raghavan, Vice President of OUM, and Professor Dr. Nantha Kumar, Acting Dean of the Faculty of Technology and Applied Sciences. The visit came within the framework of the academic staff exchange program between the two universities, where the visit aimed to exchange academic expertise and agree on starting joint research projects between the two universities.

"Black Injustice" Play Premieres – Oman

In collaboration with Mazoon College, Oman University has launched a theater group and presented the play "Black Injustice" at the Arab Open University Theater. The play was performed by the Mazoon College student theater group and was held to refine their young talents, encourage them, and highlight their role in serving the community. The event was attended by Dr. Mohammed bin Saeed Al Bahri, Dean of Mazoon College, Mr. Saif Al Kharusi, Director of Community Engagement and Marketing at the university, and a large number of university students.

The regional workshop "Child-Friendly Media" commenced in Abu Dhabi, bringing together a distinguished group of participants, including Her Majesty the Queen of Malaysia, artists, and media professionals from seven Arab countries – ACCD – AGFUND

The regional workshop "Child-Friendly Media" was launched in Abu Dhabi in partnership between the Arab Council for Childhood and Development, the Supreme Council for Motherhood and Childhood, the League of Arab States, the Arab Gulf Program for Development (AGFUND), and UNICEF. The opening witnessed a speech by His Royal Highness Prince Abdulaziz bin Talal bin Abdulaziz Al Saud, President of the Arab Gulf Program for Development (AGFUND) and the President of the Arab Council for Childhood and Development. In a speech delivered on his behalf by Dr. Nasser Al Qahtani, Executive Director of the Gulf Development Program, that highlighted the significant transformations that have taken place in the field of communication and media, encompassing its concepts, forms, and content. In addition, the speech emphasized the profound impact of media on shaping life across the globe, influencing cultural, educational, social, economic, and political spheres.

The university participates in the University Specialization Fair – Oman

The university, represented by the Admissions and Registration Department, participated in the University Specialization Fair, which was held at the Muscat Grand Mall. The fair was inaugurated by His Excellency Dr. Abdullah Al Ambusaidi, Undersecretary of the Ministry of Education for Education. The fair included 23 higher education institutions in the Sultanate of Oman and was organized by the Department of vocational guidance and student counseling in the directorate general of education in Muscat Governorate, represented by the vocational guidance department.

University Welcomes Delegation from Kuwait Transparency Society – Kuwait

The university's Rector, Professor Dr. Mohamed Sayed, welcomed a delegation from the Kuwaiti Transparency Society, represented by Dr. Fahad Al Raqib, Vice President of the Society, Ms. Hiyam Al Duwaileh, Secretary-General, and Dr. Dalal Al Saif, Member of the Society's Board of Directors. The meeting aimed to discuss mechanisms and frameworks for cooperation between the university and the society. During the meeting, the two parties discussed the current state of education and the role of higher education institutions in supporting sustainable development.

University organized a workshop on analyzing writing errors and academic essays – Kuwait

Mr. Salama Afifi and Mr. Mohammed Yassin Al Arga, from the College of Language Studies, presented a workshop on analyzing writing errors and writing academic essays. The workshop was attended by a number of students from the English Language Unit. The workshop reviewed writing errors and corrected them, explaining their causes and within eight axes. It also presented the foundations and important pillars on which the academic essay is based and reviewed real-life examples of academic paragraphs and essays.

University Honors 60 Orphans – Jordan

In line with AOU's social responsibility towards the local community, and in cooperation with the "Tabasim Volunteer Team" the university organized a ceremony to honor 60 orphans. It included various competitions and recreational and cultural activities aimed at putting a smile on the children's faces and bringing happiness to their hearts.

University organized a seminar on "Political and partisan life: The role of youth and women in the royal vision for modernizing the political system" – Jordan

Under the patronage of the university director, Professor Tahrir Hamdi, and in cooperation with the "Yalla Nsharek, Yalla Nehtazeb" initiative, the university organized a dialogue seminar entitled "Political and partisan life: The role of youth and women in the royal vision for modernizing the political system". The attendees stressed the importance of the participation of youth and civil society institutions in the royal vision for modernizing the political system, inspired by the steps of His Majesty King Abdullah II.