

Sunday 16TH August 2026

03RD Rabi' al-Awwal 1448 AH

AOU
الجامعة العربية المفتوحة
Arabo Open University

AGFUND

Issue no. (19/2026)

Electronic Newsletter

Hail Governor Honors Winners of the Arab Open University Creativity and Innovation Challenge – Hail, Saudi Arabia

His Royal Highness Prince Abdulaziz bin Saad bin Abdulaziz Al Saud, Governor of Hail Region, honored the male and female students who won the “Arab Open University Creativity and Innovation Challenge.” The ceremony was attended by University President Dr. Ali Al-Shahrani, Director of the Arab Open University in Hail Mr. Mohammed Al-Sarour, and members of the judging panel. The event highlighted the competition’s role in encouraging students to develop creativity and innovation.

Black Phantom Student Team Secures First Place in the Kuwait Robotics Competition – Kuwait

AOU President, Dr. Salah Al-Hammadi, in the presence of the Dean of the Faculty of Computer Studies, Dr. Issa Al-Harbi, honored the University’s student team, Black Phantom, for achieving first place in the Robotics Competition organized by Ktech in cooperation with the Scientific Center. The team also received the Best Robot Design Award and the Best Robot Driving Award. This achievement came as part of an intensive training program in VEX V5

AOU Strengthens Technological Infrastructure with New Cybersecurity and AI Labs – Bahrain

The Arab Open University, in collaboration with Zain Bahrain, is establishing two new specialized labs on the University’s campus one for cybersecurity and another for artificial intelligence—to enhance the learning environment and prepare students for future technological demands.

AOU President Visits the University’s Booth at Edu Gate Universities Exhibition – Egypt

Prof. Mohamed Hamza, President of the University, visited the University’s booth at the Edu Gate Universities Exhibition in Egypt, where he reviewed its academic programs and educational services and met with students and visitors interested in the University’s offerings.

AOU Participates in “Youth Impact” Forum – Saudi Arabia

The Arab Open University’s Dammam Branch participated in the “Youth Impact” Forum at the Sultan bin Abdulaziz Center for Science and Technology (SAITEC) in Saudi Arabia, marking International Youth Day. The participation reflects the University’s commitment to youth engagement, community development, and social responsibility.

Arab Open University Participates in the Fifth University Majors Exhibition – Bahrain

The Arab Open University participated in the fifth University Majors Exhibition at the Radisson Blu Diplomat Hotel, welcoming high school students, parents, and higher education enthusiasts. Visitors learned about the University’s academic programs, admission and registration requirements, and academic services.