

Issue no. (21/2026)

Electronic Newsletter

The Arab Open University celebrated the graduation ceremony of its 21st cohort – Lebanon

As part of its 17th graduation ceremony, the event was attended by approximately 376 male and female graduates, in an academic and celebratory occasion that brought together the graduates and their families, members of the academic community, and a number of official and media figures. The ceremony was attended by His Excellency the Minister of Public Health, Dr. Rakan Nasser El-Din, who delivered a speech highlighting the importance of education and the role of young people in building Lebanon's future, alongside a speech by the University President, Dr. Yara Abdullah, who emphasized the importance of this milestone in the graduates' academic and professional journeys.

AOU Qualifies Two Teams in the ECPC Qualifications Under the Patronage of H.E. Dr. Abdullah Al-Shibli: Fifth Edition of the Research Skills Forum Concludes – Oman

Under the patronage of Prof. Mohamed Hamza, President of Arab Open University, 25 AOU teams participated in the Open University – Oman concluded the fifth edition of the ECPC Qualifications Competition, held at the Arab Research Skills Forum, held in collaboration with the Academy for Science, Technology and Maritime Transport Research and Innovation Authority. The event was in Abu Qir, Alexandria. Two AOU teams successfully attended by senior education and research officials and qualified for the regional and global ICPC competitions. AOU Oman President Prof. Mohammed Al-Badi.

AOU's "Skooly Smart AI" Team Qualifies for the Idea 2026 Competition Finals – Saudi Arabia

A team of AOU students in Jeddah, "Skooly Smart AI," members, department heads, and administrative staff. The qualified for the final stage of the Idea 2026 University workshop focused on strengthening institutional Competition, organized by Injaz Saudi Arabia. The team cooperation, sharing expertise, and enhancing advanced after competing against more than 100 student governance and administrative practices, with companies nationwide, securing a place among the top representatives from the Civil Service Commission also 20 finalists.

AOU Organizes Institutional Governance Workshop in Collaboration with the Kuwait National Guard – Kuwait

The Arab Open University Training Center organized a workshop on institutional governance in collaboration with the Kuwait National Guard, with the participation of faculty and administrative staff. The workshop focused on strengthening institutional governance and administrative practices, with representatives from the Civil Service Commission also attending.

AOU President Inspects University Facilities and Reviews Readiness for the New Academic Year – Saudi Arabia

The Arab Open University President toured several academic, administrative, and service facilities to assess readiness for the new academic year and review the services provided to students. He met with students and staff, listened to their feedback and needs, and emphasized the importance of direct communication with students and providing an integrated educational experience from the start of the academic year.

AOU Continues Its Knowledge Presence at Khareef Dhofar 2026 with a Power BI Program – Oman

Arab Open University, represented by its Training Academy, continued its knowledge-focused activities during Khareef Dhofar 2026 through a Power BI program covering fundamentals and practical applications. More than 30 employees from various government and private organizations participated in the program.

Dr. Hussein Al-Ghafri Delivers “The Art of Contract Drafting” Program for Public and Private Sector Employees in Salalah – Oman

AOU's Training Academy concluded the “The Art of Contract Drafting” program in Salalah, with the participation of public and private sector employees. The program, delivered by Dr. Hussein Al-Ghafri, covered the legal and methodological foundations of contract drafting, along with key skills and practices for preparing clear and accurate contracts that protect the rights of all parties and minimize potential disputes.

Arab Open University Receives Representatives from the Bahrain Businessmen's Society – Bahrain

AOU President Dr. Najma Taqi received Nasser Bardastani, representing the Bahrain Businessmen's Society, and Dr. Fadel Habib to strengthen cooperation and communication with Bahrain's business sector. The meeting explored joint initiatives and future projects to support students and enhance AOU's partnership with the business community.

AOU Concludes “Soft Skills for Support Jobs” Program in Salalah – Oman

Arab Open University's Training Academy concluded the “Soft Skills for Support Jobs” program in Salalah, with the participation of several employees. The program covered legal, organizational, and behavioral skills aimed at enhancing participants' professional competencies.