

Issue no. (58/2025)

Electronic Newsletter

Sunday 09TH March 2025

09TH Ramadan 1446 AH

President Office

AOU's Master's Program in English Literature Accredited by the British Accreditation Committee – Egypt

The Master's Program in English Literature at the Arab Open University (AOU) has received unconditional accreditation from the British Accreditation Committee (OU). During official meetings in Egypt, the program earned six academic commendations, with experts from four British universities praising its rigor, structured curriculum, and alignment with British university standards.

AOU Participates in University Fair for Alexandria International Schools – Egypt

The Arab Open University participated in the University Fair organized by Alexandria International Schools for IGCSE and American Diploma students. Under the guidance of Prof. Nermin Khodr, AOU showcased its internationally accredited programs, attracting strong student interest. The university's global accreditation, prestigious foreign degrees, and academic collaboration with the Open University in the UK were key highlights.

AOU Participates with a Distinguished Booth at the Largest Educational Forum – Egypt

AOU showcased a distinguished booth at the Edu Gate exhibition, one of Egypt's major educational events, held at the Kempinski Hotel from February 23 to 26. The event featured Egyptian and international universities and attracted many students and parents interested in exploring educational opportunities.

AOU held a workshop titled "The Role of University Staff in Combating Fraud and Money Laundering" – Kuwait

AOU hosted a workshop titled "The Role of University Staff in Combating Fraud and Money Laundering" under the patronage of Prof. Mohammed Ibrahim Al-Zakari, the University President. Presented by Dr. Salah Al-Hamadi and Mr. Muhannad Al-Hakim, the workshop focused on financial crime prevention mechanisms and raising awareness among staff about best practices in fraud prevention. This initiative reflects the university's commitment to transparency and institutional integrity.

ICEF Middle East Scholarship Forum 2025 – Oman

Prof. Mohammed bin Hamdan Al-Badi, President of AOU, participated in the ICEF Middle East Scholarship Forum 2025 in Oman, held under the patronage of H.H. Dr. Kamel bin Fahd Al Said. Organized by the Ministry of Higher Education, the two-day forum gathers experts and officials from the GCC and beyond to discuss advancements in higher education.

Honoring Maintenance and Landscaping Staff at AOU – Oman

under the patronage of Prof. Mohammed Al-Badi, AOU President, honored maintenance staff from GENTCO and landscaping workers from the General Development Services Company (SAOC). The ceremony, attended by university officials, recognized their efforts and encouraged further dedication in the future.

AOU's Professional Development Center Organizes Field Visit to ITI – Egypt

AOU in Egypt organized a field visit to the Information Technology Institute (ITI) in the New Administrative Capital, as part of its collaboration with ITI. Under the patronage of Prof. Nermin Khodr, the visit was attended by over 100 students from the Faculty of Computer Science and IT and the Faculty of Graphic Design. The visit included lectures on various technical fields and modern specializations offered by the institute.

AOU Meets with the Public Authority for Youth and Sports to Discuss Collaborative Opportunities – Kuwait

AOU met with a delegation from the Public Authority for Youth to discuss collaboration opportunities. The discussions focused on providing students with unique educational and developmental opportunities, as well as initiatives to empower youth and enhance their skills, aiming to enrich their university experience and create future partnerships that benefit students and their ambitions.

AOU Hosts Dr. Susan Mawson from the University of Strathclyde in Scotland – Kuwait

AOU hosted Dr. Susan Mawson, a visiting professor from the University of Strathclyde in Scotland. This visit aligns with the university's commitment to strengthening academic collaboration and exchanging experiences between the two institutions. During the visit, three unique workshops were organized to enhance the academic and professional skills of students, researchers, and academics.

AI Tools Applications in Analyzing, Reviewing, and Evaluating Academic Theses – Oman

In collaboration with the Ministry of Higher Education, Research, and Innovation, the Arab Open University (AOU) launched two training courses: "AI Tools Applications in Analyzing, Reviewing, and Evaluating Academic Theses" and "Qualitative Data Analysis". With over 50 participants from various sectors, the courses aim to enhance skills in using AI tools for analyzing and reviewing research and analyzing qualitative data.

AOU Participates in the Student Advisory Councils Forum "Parliament" – Oman

AOU participated in the Student Advisory Councils Forum "Parliament" during the 11th Student Cultural Week at Sharqiya University. The forum, attended by several universities and educational institutions, focused on strengthening the role of student advisory councils in developing student activities and promoting active student engagement.

AOU Organizes Scientific Seminar on Mental Health – Jordan

AOU organized a scientific seminar on mental health in collaboration with Finland-based researchers specializing in Middle Eastern studies. The seminar was chaired by Prof. Tahir Hamed, University President, and attended by Prof. Rizan Al-Kurdi, Advisor to the Secretary-General of the Supreme Council for Disabled Affairs, and Dr. Falah Al-Tamimi, Director and Founder of the Central Mental Health Complex.

AOU

الجامعة العربية المفتوحة
Arab Open University

أنتِ القوة والإلهام دائمًا

-اليوم الدولي للمرأة-
8 مارس

