

Issue no. (60/2025)

Electronic Newsletter

Sunday 23RD March 2025

23RD Ramadan 1446 AH

President
Office

AOU Explores Collaboration with the Environment Authority on Sustainability Projects – Oman

The Arab Open University – Faculty of Law is strengthening its partnership with the Environment Authority to develop sustainability projects. Dr. Hussein Al-Ghafri met with Dr. Mohammed Al-Kalbani, along with faculty members and law students, to discuss initiatives for Master of Law students in environmental law and sustainable development. This collaboration aligns with Oman Vision 2040 and aims to assess the feasibility of these projects to promote sustainability and environmental awareness.

AOU Organizes Community "IFTAR" for Students and Alumni – Oman

The Arab Open University hosted a communal "IFTAR" to foster connections between students, alumni, and the university administration. The event, attended by university president Prof. Mohammed bin Hamdan Al-Badi, faculty, and alumni, aimed to celebrate the holy month and provide entertainment. It also featured cultural competitions among student groups to enhance engagement and break the routine.

AOU President Congratulates Bahrain's Leadership on the Successful Launch of "Al-Munther" Satellite

Dr. Najma Taqi, President of the Arab Open University, congratulated Bahrain's leadership on the successful launch of the "Al-Munther" satellite. She extended her best wishes to His Majesty King Hamad bin Isa Al Khalifa, His Royal Highness Prince Salman bin Hamad Al Khalifa, and His Highness Major General Sheikh Nasser bin Hamad Al Khalifa, celebrating this significant national achievement.

AOU Celebrates Ramadan "GHABGA" with Students and Alumni – Bahrain

In a warm and friendly atmosphere, AOU organized its Ramadan "GHABGA". In her speech, Dr. Najma Taqi, the university president, expressed her joy in bringing everyone together during this holy month. She emphasized that the event reflects the university's spirit, which extends beyond academics to foster a community rooted in human and social values.

AOU Hosts Al-Nasser Modern School Students for an Introductory Tour – Jordan

The Arab Open University welcomed tenth-grade students from Al-Nasser Modern Schools to introduce them to its academic programs and services. Dr. Mufid Abu Musa highlighted the university's diverse offerings and provided guidance on choosing suitable specializations based on students' interests and abilities.

AOU Organizes “GHABQA” and “GERGIANN” for Students – Kuwait

The Arab Open University organized a “GHABQA” and “GERGIANN” event for its students under the supervision of the Student Affairs Department, with the support of the Photography Club, Sports Club, and Culture and Arts Club. The event, which invited all current students and alumni, was filled with joy and celebration in a festive Ramadan atmosphere. The celebration featured cultural exchange, where students from different countries presented popular dishes from their homelands, such as “Kuwaiti Machboos, Jordanian Mansaf, Palestinian Musakhan, Egyptian Mahshi, etc.” Additionally, sweets were distributed to children.

AOU Organizes Charity “IFTAR” for Orphaned Children – Jordan

The Student Affairs Department, in collaboration with the College of Media, organized a charity “IFTAR” for orphaned children to celebrate the holy month of Ramadan. Around 30 orphaned children participated in the event, which was part of the university's efforts to strengthen ties with the local community and civil society institutions. The initiative, aligned with the university's social responsibility and volunteerism culture, featured various activities managed by 35 student volunteers. These activities included sports games, telematch competitions, and theatrical and cartoon performances that delighted the children.

AOU Hosts Ramadan “IFTAR” for Support Staff – Kuwait

The Arab Open University in Kuwait organized a Ramadan “IFTAR” for its support staff, including security, maintenance, cleaning, and electrical personnel, from the General Services and Maintenance Department. The event, held under the patronage and presence of University Director Prof. Mohammed Said, Deputy Director for Academic Affairs and Research Dr. Salah Al-Hamadi, local deans, and heads of administrative departments, acknowledged the essential role and efforts of the support staff in providing services to the university.

AOU

الجامعة العربية المفتوحة
Arab Open University

اليوم العالمي للمياه

22 مارس

