

Sunday 25TH May 2025

27TH Dhul-Qi'dah 1446 AH

Electronic Newsletter

Issue no. (67/2025)

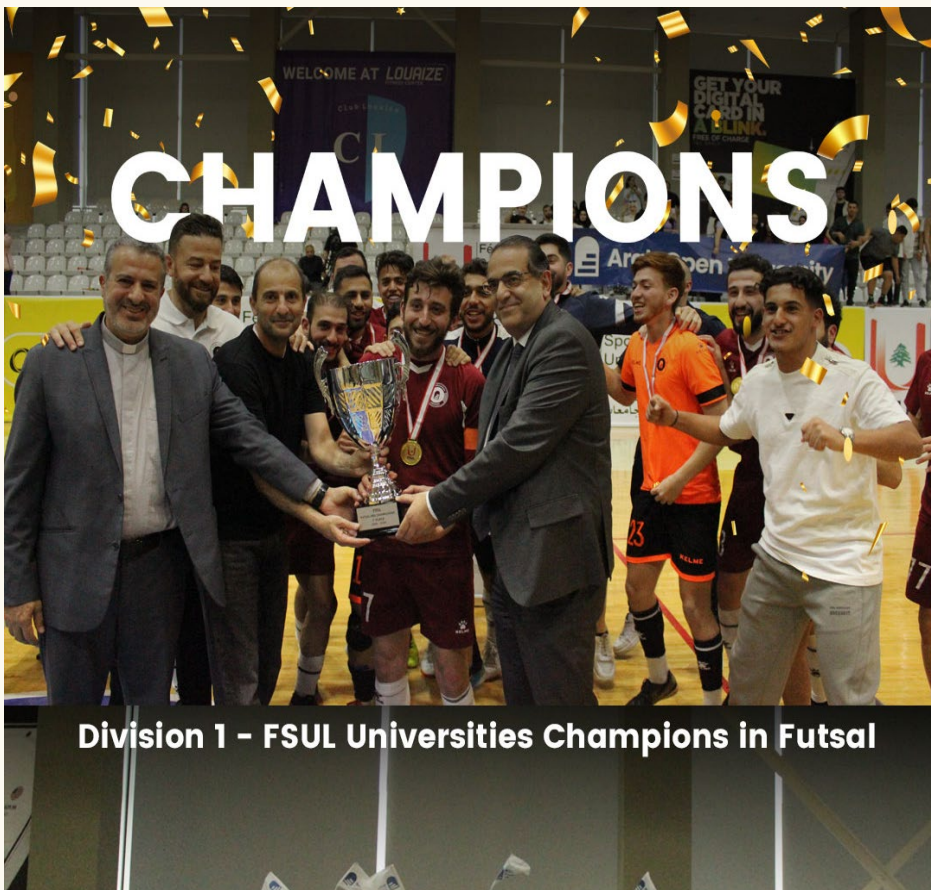

President Office

The 84th Meeting of the Open Arab University Council Held with Active Student Participation – Headquarters

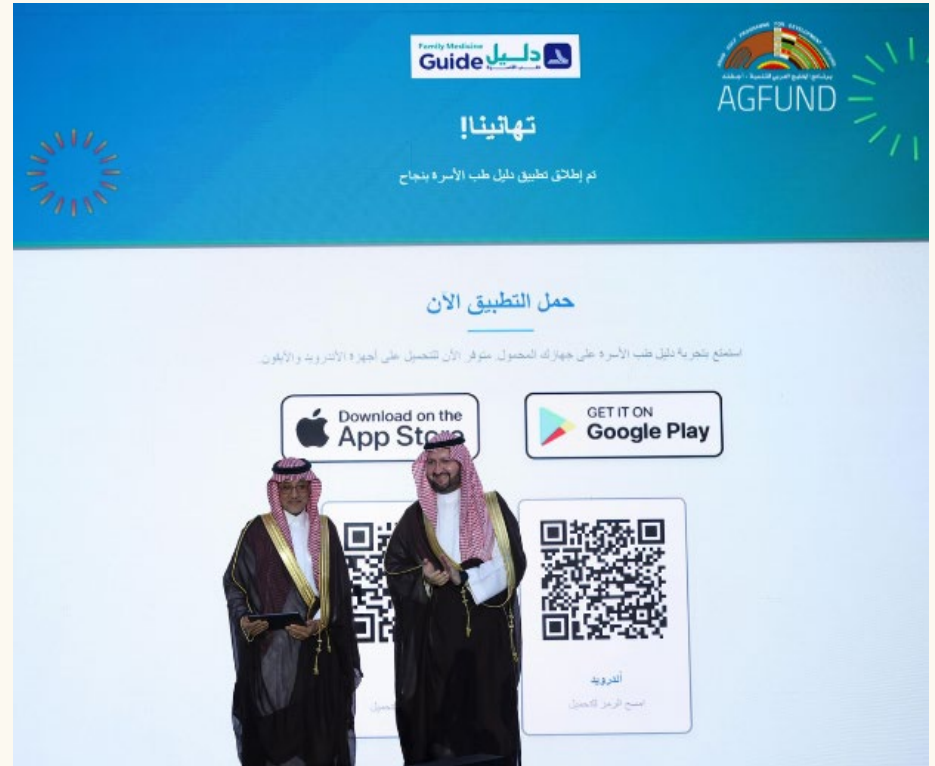

The Arab Open University held its 84th Council meeting, led by President Prof. Mohammad Al-Zakari, with participation from university rectors and faculty across branches. The meeting featured active involvement from student representatives in Egypt, who presented issues and suggestions, highlighting the university's commitment to student engagement and educational development.

Division 1 – FSUL Universities Champions in Futsal

AOU Team Wins FSUL University Mini Football Championship – Lebanon

The Arab Open University team claimed the FSUL University Mini Football Championship title after a remarkable performance showcasing talent, dedication, and strong team spirit. This victory crowns a series of wins that highlighted the team's strength and excellence among universities. Team members affirmed that this achievement is just the beginning, as they continue preparing for more championships in the future.

Prince Abdulaziz bin Talal Launches “National Family Medicine Reference” Platform – AGFUND

HRH Prince Abdulaziz bin Talal, Chairman of AGFUND and Honorary President of the Saudi Society of Family and Community Medicine, sponsored the Society's World Family Doctor Day celebration in Riyadh. He launched several initiatives, including the National Family Medicine Reference website (DaleelFM.com), developed with contributions from over 3,000 family doctors. The event also featured an awards ceremony honoring excellence in family medicine.

Chairman of the Board of Trustees Welcomes Alumna Al-Anoud Al-Qassimi, Winner of AI Award – Saudi Arabia

His Royal Highness Prince Abdulaziz bin Talal bin Abdulaziz Al Saud, Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Arab Open University, welcomed alumna Al-Anoud Al-Qassimi from the Faculty of Computer Studies in recognition of her first-place win in the AI League competition under the category "Best Use of Artificial Intelligence." Her innovative project, Skillup Maheer, stood out among over 1,800 participants and 600 tech projects.

AOU Hosts Advisory Board Meeting of the Faculty of Computer Studies – Kuwait

The Arab Open University in Kuwait hosted the Advisory Board meeting of the Faculty of Computer Studies, attended by university officials and industry experts. The board discussed several topics and visited the graduation project exhibition, where members praised the students' work for its creativity and innovative ideas.

AOU Hail Organizes Awareness Lecture on "First Aid Basics" in Collaboration with Red Crescent – Hail, Saudi Arabia

The Arab Open University in Hail, in cooperation with the Saudi Red Crescent Authority, organized an awareness lecture titled "First Aid Basics." The event is part of the university's ongoing commitment to promoting health awareness and building the capacity of its staff and students to handle emergency situations. The lecture aimed to equip attendees with essential knowledge of first aid principles and empower them to take correct actions during critical moments, helping reduce complications and save lives during emergencies.

AOU Kuwait Hosts Graduation Project Exhibition – Kuwait

The Faculty of Computer Studies at the Arab Open University in Kuwait held its 2024/2025 graduation project exhibition under the patronage of Prof. Mohamed El-Sayed, University Director. The event was attended by Prof. Omar Al-Jarrah, Vice President for Planning and Development and Regional Dean of the Faculty, Dr. Salah Al-Hammadi, Assistant Director for Academic Affairs and Scientific Research, Dr. Issa Al-Harbi, Dean of the Faculty in Kuwait, as well as faculty members and guests from the business sector.

Minister of Religious Affairs Visits Arab Open University – Egypt

The Arab Open University in Egypt hosted Minister Dr. Osama Al-Azhari for a seminar titled "Moderate Religious Discourse: A Bridge to Enlightened Social Awareness," upon the invitation of Prof. Nermeen Khodr. The event saw strong participation from students and faculty, where the minister emphasized the importance of moderation in countering extremism and promoting informed youth awareness. He engaged in open dialogue, answering attendees' questions constructively.

AOU Blood Donation Campaign – Lebanon

The Arab Open University in Lebanon organized a blood donation campaign at the Antelias campus, led by the university clinic and the Student Affairs Office, in collaboration with the Lebanese Red Cross. The campaign received strong participation from the university community and resulted in the collection of 21 blood units.

AOU Students and Alumni Join Beirut Marathon – Lebanon

The Arab Open University in Lebanon took part in the Beirut Marathon 5K race as part of the "Run for a Cause" initiative. With great enthusiasm, AOU students and alumni ran in support of the "Ajialouna" Association, spreading positive energy and a spirit of solidarity with every step.

AOU Students Win Second Place in Tech Challenge for Quranic Sciences – Saudi Arabia

In a new achievement highlighting the Arab Open University's commitment to technological innovation and national engagement, students Firas Dallo and Adnan Al-Banna from the Faculty of Computer Studies won second place in the Tech Challenge for Serving the Quran and Its Sciences. The competition, organized by the University of Jeddah, focused on tech solutions supporting individuals with special needs.

AOU Graduates Join Reforestation Initiative – Lebanon

As part of the Green Graduation Initiative, graduates of the Arab Open University in Lebanon planted 350 cedar trees in the Sannine-Mtein area, in collaboration with the Lebanon Reforestation Initiative. This event reflects the university's commitment to sustainable development and offers graduates a meaningful way to leave a lasting environmental legacy tied to their academic journey.

AOU Honors Scientific Innovation at the Science Fair – Lebanon

The Arab Open University participated in the Science Fair held at the Lebanese University under the theme "We Innovate... to Rise and Thrive!" The university awarded the Prince Talal bin Abdulaziz Prize for Scientific Excellence to two outstanding projects that demonstrated innovation and a strong focus on sustainability and inclusion.

AOU Egypt Hosts Minister of Youth at Seminar on "Sports Culture and Youth Empowerment" – Egypt

As part of its leading role in promoting community engagement and youth awareness, the Arab Open University in Egypt hosted His Excellency Dr. Ashraf Sobhi, Minister of Youth and Sports, at its Cairo campus. He participated in a broad seminar titled "Sports Culture and Youth Empowerment," under the patronage of Prof. Nermeen Khodr, President of AOU Egypt and Dean of the Faculty of Media.

AOU Hosts Visual Arts Workshop – Kuwait

The Arab Open University in Kuwait held a visual arts workshop titled "The Scented Stone" led by student Latifa Hamoud Al-Omira. The workshop aimed to develop artistic and aesthetic sensitivity, encourage students to express and refine their talents, and enhance skills in creativity, coordination, color harmony, and design. Al-Omira emphasized that visual arts can also serve as a powerful medium to express social and humanitarian issues.

AOU Delegation Participates in Public Relations and Diplomacy Conference – Kuwait

A delegation from AOU in Kuwait took part in the Public Relations and Diplomacy Conference held on May 21–22, 2025. The event brought together experts, academics, and professionals from across the Arab world in the fields of media, public relations, and diplomacy. The conference featured a series of lectures and specialized workshops, including a notable session titled “Public Relations Diplomacy in Achieving National Visions – Bahrain as a Model,” presented by Ms. Hanan Abdullah Hassan, Vice President of the Bahrain Public Relations Association.

Faculty of Education Hosts a Day of Activities and Creativity at AOU Egypt – Egypt

The Faculty of Education at AOU Egypt organized a vibrant Activity Day under the patronage of University President Prof. Nermeen Khodr and the supervision of Dean Dr. Hanan Abdelsalam. Held at the university theater, the event saw active participation from students, faculty, and staff. Dr. Abdelsalam led the event, praising the efforts that contributed to its success.

AOU Hosts Lecture on “Sustainable Economic Growth through Entrepreneurship” – Kuwait

The Arab Open University in Kuwait hosted a lecture by Dr. André Ottesen, Chief Strategy Officer at Tibyan Group, titled “Sustainable Growth of Kuwait’s Economy: Entrepreneurship as a Growth Driver.” He discussed the role of entrepreneurship in sustainable development and shared insights from his experiences at the London Business School and the International Carbon Recycling Company, emphasizing sustainable resource use and balancing economic growth with social equity.

AOU Participates in Educational Opportunities Fair for KFH Employees – Kuwait

The Arab Open University in Kuwait participated in an Educational Opportunities Fair organized by Kuwait Finance House (KFH) for its employees. The event aimed to inform staff about academic programs and scholarship opportunities, offering them direct access to details on available majors, admission criteria, and the benefits of studying at AOU.

Cybersecurity Led by AOU Students – Lebanon

In a special session organized by the Tech Fusion Club at the Arab Open University – Lebanon, students engaged with cybersecurity and ethical hacking experts from Semicolon Academy. The workshop featured hands-on content and discussions on bug bounty programs and digital security. Professionals who contribute to securing global systems for companies like Meta and Apple delivered live demonstrations and practical applications.

AOU Holds Third Periodic Staff Meeting with University Leadership – Saudi Arabia

The Arab Open University held its third periodic meeting between staff and university leadership, reinforcing its commitment to institutional communication and a collaborative work environment. The event aimed to enhance efficiency, develop skills, and improve performance in line with the university’s strategic objectives.

AOU

الجامعة العربية المفتوحة
Arab Open University

21 مايو

اليوم العالمي للتنوع الثقافي
من أجل الحوار والتنمية