AOU
الجامعة العربية المفتوحة
Arab Open University

AGFUND
برنامج الخليج العربي للتنمية – أجفند

Electronic

Issue no. (68/2025)

Newsletter

President Office

AOU Oman celebrates the graduation of its 13TH Class

On May 22, 2025, the Arab Open University in Oman held its 13th graduation ceremony at Irfan City Theater, honoring 430 graduates from diploma, bachelor's, and master's programs. The event was held under the patronage of Minister of Higher Education Prof. Rahma Al-Mahrouqi and attended by Prince Abdulaziz bin Talal and other dignitaries. The university reaffirmed its commitment to providing flexible and high-quality education to diverse segments of society. The ceremony featured speeches celebrating the graduates' achievements and the university's role in advancing education in Oman. Attendees praised the university's efforts in promoting academic excellence and offering inclusive learning opportunities aligned with national development goals.

Strategic Collaboration Between the University and Huawei to Provide Free Training and Technical Services – Saudi Arabia

AOU signed an MoU with Huawei to provide free training and technical services to its students and staff, aiming to align education with market needs. The agreement, signed at Huawei's headquarters in China, grants access to Huawei Academy and a variety of certified training programs, enhancing participants' technical skills and employability.

The Arab Open University Welcomes Prince Abdulaziz bin Talal for the Graduation Ceremony – Oman

The President of the Arab Open University, Prof. Mohammed bin Hamdan Al-Badi, welcomed Prince Abdulaziz bin Talal at Muscat International Airport ahead of his participation in the university's thirteenth graduation ceremony. The visit highlights the university's dedication to producing qualified graduates who support national development and meet labor market demands.

Academic and Research Collaboration Between AOU in Kuwait and Malta College of Arts, Science and Technology – Kuwait

AOU in Kuwait announced an academic and research collaboration agreement with the Malta College of Arts, Science and Technology, aiming to strengthen international partnerships in higher education and scientific research. The cooperation will include joint research projects, academic program development, faculty exchange, and efforts to enhance digital infrastructure and ensure academic quality.

His Highness the Undersecretary of the Ministry of Labour Opens "Career Day" at the Arab Open University – Bahrain

His Highness Sheikh Khalifa bin Salman Al Khalifa, Undersecretary of the Ministry of Labour, inaugurated the Career Day at the Arab Open University in Bahrain. The event, attended by local officials, aimed to connect students with job opportunities and career paths offered by private sector companies.

AOU Participates in the Omani-Saudi Knowledge Dialogue Forum to Strengthen Academic and Research Cooperation – Oman

The university, led by Prof. Mohammed bin Hamdan Al-Badi, took part in the Omani-Saudi Knowledge Dialogue Forum held at Al Bustan Palace Hotel in Muscat. The forum was held under the patronage of Her Excellency Professor Dr. Rahma bint Ibrahim Al-Mahrouqi, Minister of Higher Education, Research, and Innovation.

AOU Organizes Its First Employment Forum for English Language Teachers – Egypt

The Arab Open University in Egypt held its first employment forum for English language teachers, under the patronage of President Prof. Nermin Khodr and attended by major international schools, aiming to connect graduates with job opportunities in the education sector.

AOU Organizes "Financial Community" Seminar to Support and Prepare Students and Graduates – Egypt

AOU in Egypt held a seminar titled "Financial Community" in collaboration with the Faculty of Business Administration and Banker's Lounge Academy, aiming to support students and graduates. The event featured expert speakers, including Dr. Heba Saad, who gave a lecture on interview preparation and effective use of LinkedIn.

AOU Supports Saudi Arabia's Excellence on the International Stage – Saudi Arabia

With support from the Arab Open University, the Saudi team won third place globally in the Huawei ICT Competition – Innovation Track, competing against over 200,000 students from 114 countries, under the supervision of the Technical and Vocational Training Corporation.

Workshop at the Faculty of Language Studies on Using AI in Teaching the "Garnet" Curriculum – Egypt

The Faculty of Language Studies at the Arab Open University in Egypt held a workshop on using technology and AI tools in teaching the Garnet curriculum. The event, supported by University President Prof. Nermin Khodr, aimed to enhance modern teaching practices and empower faculty with innovative educational tools.

Enhancing Employment and Training Opportunities: The University Connects Students with the Job Market – Oman

AOU in Oman organized a "Job and Training Fair" with the participation of several private sector institutions. The event aimed to enhance employment and training opportunities for students and graduates as part of the university's efforts to align educational outcomes with labor market needs and prepare national talent.

AOU Honors Participants in Training Courses Offered by the Training and Community Service Center – Jordan

The Training and Community Service Center at the Arab Open University organized a certificate awarding ceremony for participants in its recent training courses. The event was held under the patronage of Prof. Tahrir Hamdi, Director of the University, and was attended by several academic and administrative staff members.

AOU Organizes Seminar on "Purposeful Drama and Strengthening National Identity in Artistic Works" – Egypt

The Faculty of Media at the Arab Open University in Egypt organized a seminar titled "Purposeful Drama and Strengthening National Identity in Artistic Works," under the patronage of University President Prof. Nermin Khodr. The event highlighted the university's cultural role and the importance of restoring the prominence of Egyptian drama.

AOU Honors Participants in Generative AI Workshop Series – Jordan

The Arab Open University in Jordan held a certificate ceremony to honor participants of its generative AI workshop series. The event was organized by the Student Affairs Department and held under the patronage of University Director Prof. Tahrir Hamdi, with the attendance of academic and administrative leaders.

AOU Hosts Session Titled: "My Journey with the Human Doctor… Emotional Intelligence in a University Environment" – Jordan

AOU in Jordan held a new session as part of the AOUers Talk series—an initiative focused on sharing inspiring experiences from members of the university community. The session highlighted personal and professional stories related to education, travel, work, and life, supporting the university's efforts to promote a strong organizational culture.

Implementation of Alternative Sentences and the Arab Open University Sign Memorandum of Understanding – Bahrain

His Excellency Sheikh Khalid bin Rashid Al Khalifa, Director General of the General Directorate of Verdict Execution and Alternative Sentencing, and Dr. Najma Taqi, President of the University, signed a joint Memorandum of Understanding. The agreement provides for the delivery of specialized educational programs to beneficiaries of the Alternative Sentencing Project.

AOU Delivers Interactive Workshop on Performance Indicators for Academic Leaders at the Technical College in Hail – Hail, Saudi Arabia

AOU held an interactive workshop titled "Performance Compass: Indicators That Make an Impact" for academic leaders at the Girls' Technical College in Hail. The workshop focused on performance measurement and impact assessment, supporting leadership development in higher education and technical training.

"Hayat" Play at the University: Student Creativity and Deep Human Messages – Jordan

The English Department, in collaboration with the Deanship of Student Affairs, organized a theatrical performance titled "Hayat" at the Arab Open University in Jordan. The event was attended by University Director Prof. Tahrir Hamdi, along with a large audience of students, faculty, and staff. The play showcased outstanding student talent and artistic expression, delivering profound human messages that resonated deeply with the audience and received wide appreciation.

AOU Conducts Multiple AI Workshops – Kuwait

The Training Center at the Arab Open University organized a series of weekly workshops focused on the applications of artificial intelligence in administrative work, as part of its ongoing efforts to support digital transformation and enhance institutional efficiency. The workshops were led by Dr. Aws Abu Eid, who delivered advanced lectures on the latest practical AI applications in administrative environments, with strong engagement from participants across various departments and academic fields.