

Electronic Newsletter

Issue no. (69/2025)

President Office

Inspection Tour by the Deans of Academic Programs to Ensure the Smooth Conduct of Exams – Headquarters

The deans of the Faculties of Business and Language Studies conducted an inspection tour at the main campus in Kuwait to ensure the proper conduct of exams, verify compliance with regulations, and confirm that the testing environment meets the university's standards of academic quality and integrity.

Faculty of Education Welcomes University of Malaya Delegation to Foster International Academic Cooperation – Oman

The Faculty of Education organized an introductory meeting with a delegation from the University of Malaya (UM) to strengthen academic collaboration and exchange expertise. The meeting discussed potential partnership areas, academic programs, and ways to benefit from mutual research and practical experience, supporting the university's goals of international engagement in line with Oman Vision 2040.

AOU Sponsors the Arab Beekeepers Union Conference 2025 – Lebanon

As part of its commitment to environmental issues and sustainable development, the university sponsored the 2025 Arab Beekeepers Union Conference under the theme: "Climate Change and Its Impact on the Beekeeping Sector." The conference brought together a distinguished group of researchers and specialists in southern Lebanon, highlighting the role of universities in linking academic research to environmental challenges and community-driven solutions.

AOU Brings Together Change Leaders at Its Annual National Conference – Lebanon

The Arab Open University – Lebanon held its annual national conference in Beirut, bringing together leaders from various sectors to explore innovative solutions for building a more inclusive and resilient economy. The event featured thought leaders in policy, entrepreneurship, and gender justice. It provided a platform for dialogue and collaboration between academia, civil society, and the public and private sectors.

AOU Hosts Visit from Childhood Care Center and Youth Homes to Strengthen Innovation and Social Cooperation – Oman

The Childhood Care Center and Youth Homes in Oman visited the university to explore its innovation and training programs, aiming to enhance cooperation between educational and social institutions. The visit focused on exchanging knowledge about capacity-building initiatives and support services for innovators and youth development.

AOU Director Honors Football Team for Winning KIPCO 2025 Championship – Kuwait

The University Director, Prof. Mohamed El-Sayed, honored the football team for winning the KIPCO 2025 Championship, in a ceremony attended by senior university officials. The event reflected the university's pride in its students' achievements and commitment to excellence in both academic and extracurricular activities.

AOU Director Inspects Final Exams for the Second Semester and Commends Discipline and Readiness – Kuwait

Prof. Mohamed Sayed Mohamed, the University Director, conducted an inspection tour to follow up on the progress of the final exams for the second semester. He was accompanied by Dr. Salah Al-Hammadi, Assistant Director for Academic Affairs and Research, Dr. Mohamed Al-Loughani, Dean of the Faculty of Business Studies, and Dr. Issa Al-Harbi, Dean of the Faculty of Computer Studies.

AOU Honors Outstanding Students from Al-Jifnain School in Support of Community Initiatives – Oman

AOU hosted an honorary ceremony for outstanding students from Al-Jifnain Basic Education School as part of its ongoing support for community initiatives. The event was sponsored by Prof. Mohamed Al-Badi, the University President, and attended by Dr. Abdullah bin Khalfan Al-Shibli, Director of the Seeb Education Administration.

Building Resilient Educational Leadership: School Principals' Workshop in Beirut – Lebanon

The Arab Open University in Lebanon organized a specialized training workshop for school principals in Beirut on "Leadership and Crisis Management for Building Resilient Educational Institutions." The workshop aimed to strengthen strategic leadership and effective crisis response skills, aligning with the university's mission to support educators and empower them to lead change in their communities.