

Sunday 06TH July 2025

11TH Muharram 1447 AH

Electronic Newsletter

Issue no. (72/2025)

President Office

AOU prepares for the “Idaad” program ceremony in coordination with Higher Education and PDO – Oman

The Arab Open University in Oman met with representatives from the Ministry of Higher Education and PDO to prepare for the “I’daad” program ceremony, set for July 21. The visit focused on collaboration and reviewing the university’s readiness to host a successful and professionally aligned event.

AOU Honored for Its Pioneering Role in Empowering the Deaf Academically – Saudi Arabia

The Arab Open University was honored in Saudi Arabia for its leading role in supporting and academically empowering the deaf, during an event organized by the Saudi Association for Hearing Impairment under the patronage of Prince Mishal bin Mohammed bin Saud Al Saud.

AOU signs MoU to enhance environmental and sustainability cooperation – Kuwait

AOU Kuwait signed an MoU with the Kuwaiti Environment Protection Society to boost collaboration in environmental and sustainable development. The partnership supports research, data access, and awareness initiatives aligned with the “New Kuwait 2035” vision.

AOU Contributes to Promoting Entrepreneurial Culture through the “Entrepreneur Readiness” Program – Oman

As part of its efforts to foster an entrepreneurial mindset within the academic and student community, the Arab Open University participated in the “Entrepreneur Readiness” program organized by the Authority for Small and Medium Enterprise Development (Riyada). The university was represented by Dr. Talal bin Salem Al-Rasbi, Director of the Center for Innovation, Technology Transfer, and Consultancy.

Launch of MathMinds Center to support foundation students’ math and logic skills – Oman

In pursuit of excellence in teaching and learning, the Foundation Studies Unit has launched the MathMinds Center to support mathematics learning. The center aims to strengthen foundation year students’ mathematical and logical abilities, enhance their cognitive skills, and equip them with effective problem-solving strategies.

AOU showcases programs at “Choose Your Major Wisely” exhibition – Kuwait

AOU Kuwait participated in the “Choose Your Major Wisely” exhibition to present its programs and connect with high school students, employees, and diploma holders, reinforcing its commitment to accessible and flexible higher education.