

Electronic Newsletter

Issue no. (84/2025)

President Office

AOU Celebrates Founding Day Under the Theme “Women’s Empowerment” – Kuwait

The Arab Open University in Kuwait marked Founders’ Day in honor of Prince Talal bin Abdulaziz, highlighting his legacy in promoting women’s education. During the event, President Dr. Salah Al-Hammadi reaffirmed that women’s empowerment was a core element of the founder’s vision. Ms. Sara Al-Sabah emphasized that empowering women is a national and strategic priority, while Dr. Manal Al-Dihani noted that women make up about 62% of the university’s graduates—reflecting the university’s success in supporting women’s participation in higher education. Writer Iqbal Al-Ahmad also highlighted the university’s longstanding role in empowering women and preparing them for the future.

Under the Patronage of Prince Abdulaziz bin Talal: Arab Open University Launches the WinCom25 International Conference – Saudi Arabia

The Arab Open University inaugurated the 12th WinCom25 International Conference on wireless networks and mobile communications under the patronage of Prince Abdulaziz bin Talal. Held for the first time in Saudi Arabia, the conference serves as a leading scientific platform in telecommunications and network technologies, attracting prominent experts, researchers, and academics from around the world.

Prince Talal International Prize Honors Pioneers in Marine Life – AGFUND

Under the gracious patronage of Queen Sofia, member of the Prince Talal International Prize for Human Development Committee, and in the presence of His Royal Highness Prince Abdulaziz bin Talal bin Abdulaziz Al Saud, Chairman of the Arab Gulf Programme for Development (AGFUND) and Chair of the Prize Committee, along with Her Royal Highness Princess Haifa Al-Mogrin, Ambassador of the Custodian of the Two Holy Mosques to the Kingdom of Spain and the Principality of Andorra, AGFUND held a ceremony in Madrid to present the Prince Talal International Prize for Human Development and honor its 2024 laureates in the field of “Life Below Water,” the fourteenth Sustainable Development Goal.

AOU Signs a Cooperation Agreement with Zain – Kuwait

AOU signed a cooperation agreement with Zain Kuwait to strengthen partnership and support educational and technological initiatives. The signing ceremony was held at the Zain Innovation Center at the company’s headquarters in Shuwaikh, with University Director Dr. Salah Al-Hammadi representing the University and CEO Nawaf Hisham Al-Gharabally representing Zain. The agreement aims to support educational and research programs and to develop technological projects and digital services that benefit students and the wider community.

The Faculty of Language Studies and the Applied Linguistics Research Center Host the 8th Annual International Language Conference – Lebanon

The conference emphasized the transformative role of language, literature, and translation in fostering intercultural understanding. University leaders highlighted the growing impact of the academic programs, the importance of interdisciplinary collaboration, and the conference’s mission to strengthen scientific exchange, enriched by diverse international contributions.

AOU Explores Collaboration with Kuwait Finance House to Empower Students – Kuwait

The Arab Open University met with a delegation from Kuwait Finance House to explore cooperation in student training, digital and financial skill development, and support for research and social responsibility initiatives. Both sides discussed opportunities to create joint programs that empower students and help integrate them into the modern banking sector.

AOU Explores Collaboration Opportunities with an Academic Delegation from the French Embassy – Kuwait

The Director of the Arab Open University in Kuwait, Dr. Salah Al-Hammadi, held a productive meeting with Dr. Saeed Maamar, Advisor for University Cooperation and Scientific Research at the French Embassy, and Ms. Sarah Jwani, Head of Campus France in Kuwait, with the presence of Dr. Ali Haji. The discussion focused on future collaboration between the University and French educational institutions, including student-oriented orientation sessions and cultural activities on campus.

Arab Open University Students Celebrate National Day with a Patriotic Evening – Oman

The Arab Open University organized a student celebration in honor of Oman's National Day, attended by University President Prof. Mohammed Al-Badi. The event featured creative performances by students, including poetry, theatre, and a patriotic musical segment, all reflecting their pride in and deep connection to their homeland.

AOU Holds an Event on Raising Awareness of the Importance of Our Mental Health – Bahrain

To mark World Mental Health Day, the Arab Open University's Student Counseling Unit in Bahrain, in partnership with Serene Psychiatric Hospital, organized an awareness lecture titled "Toward Awareness of the Importance of Our Mental Health." Presented by Dr. Fadel Al-Asboul, the session highlighted key aspects of students' psychological well-being, addressing challenges such as anxiety and academic pressure and their impact on students' quality of life and academic achievement.

The University Participates in a Conference on the Use of Artificial Intelligence in Language Education – Jordan

The University participated in a specialized conference in Jordan focused on the future of language education using SmartClass AI-powered tools. Represented by Dr. Mufid Abu Mousa, Vice President for Academic Affairs, the University joined discussions that highlighted the latest innovations in language teaching, including personalized learning, skill development, and reducing teaching workload through automated assessment systems and learner progress tracking.

AOU Enhances Legal Skills Through a Specialized Training Program – Oman

The University's Training Academy concluded its program titled "Legal Qualification for Administrative Investigation and the Crime of Misuse of Public Office," with the participation of 31 trainees from various institutions. Delivered by Dr. Mohammed bin Saif bin Duwai'm Al-Shuaili, the program covered key legal aspects and practical applications related to the training topic.