

Sunday 23RD August 2026

10TH Rabi' al-Awwal 1448 AH

AOU

الجامعة العربية المفتوحة
Arab Open University

Issue no. (20/2026)

Electronic Newsletter

President of AOU Meets Hail Branch Staff and Reviews Work Progress and Readiness – Hail, Saudi Arabia

Dr. Ali Al-Shahrani, President of the Arab Open University, met with staff at the university's Hail Branch in Saudi Arabia. The meeting aimed to follow up on the branch's work and enhance institutional performance. He reviewed the progress of work and the branch's level of readiness. The visit reflects the university's commitment to improving the work environment and student services.

AOU Signs a Cooperation Agreement with LOYAC – Kuwait

AOU signed a joint cooperation agreement with LOYAC, with the aim of strengthening cooperation between the two parties in a number of areas of common interest, contributing to supporting initiatives and programs aimed at youth and the community. The Arab Open University delegation was headed by the University Director, Dr. Salah Al-Hammadi, while the LOYAC delegation was headed by Board Member Fatooh Al-Dallal.

President of AOU Reviews Branch Readiness for the Start of the Academic Year and Admission and Registration Operations – Saudi Arabia

The President of AOU held a meeting with university staff across its branches in Saudi Arabia to review preparations for the start of the academic year, admission and registration operations, and academic and administrative readiness. The meeting also covered the level of services provided to students and the latest admission and registration developments across the branches.

Vatel Bahrain College and AOU Sign a Memorandum of Understanding to Enhance Academic Cooperation – Bahrain

Vatel Bahrain College and the Arab Open University signed a Memorandum of Understanding to strengthen academic cooperation, exchange expertise, and support joint educational, training, and research initiatives. The agreement aims to develop programs that benefit students and the wider academic community.

Arab Open University Receives a Delegation from Injaz Bahrain – Bahrain

Dr. Najma Taqi, President of the Arab Open University, received a delegation from Injaz Bahrain to strengthen cooperation in youth development and student support. The meeting explored joint initiatives and future programs aimed at supporting students and developing their professional and entrepreneurial skills.

Madinah Admission and Registration Forum Concludes with Academic Guidance – Madinah, Saudi Arabia

The Arab Open University's Madinah Branch concluded its three-day Admission and Registration Forum, providing students with admission support, academic guidance, and information on educational pathways.